

Monster Energy Super X, the Australasian Supercross Championships return in 2011 and promises to deliver the most insane live motorsport action in Australia with exhilarating race formats, international standard supercross tracks and 5 new locations this October and November.

Now in its fourth year, the pioneering series will kick off with its' first ever event in Melbourne on Saturday October 22, then will head to Wollongong on Saturday October 29; Sydney (Campbelltown) on Saturday November 5; Hunter Valley (Maitland) on Saturday November 12 and conclude in South East Queensland (Ipswich) on Saturday November 19.

The first class rider lineup includes Dan Reardon, Jay and Ryan Marmont, Billy MacKenzie, Cheyne Boyd, Matt and Jake Moss and Cody Cooper battling bar to bar.

Fans can also look forward to far greater value in 2011 with an all new and more affordable ticket price structure.

Also not to be missed is the Monster FMX demo featuring some of Australia's best freestyle talent including Kain Saul and Brad Burch.

You now have the chance to purchase tickets before the general public when they go on sale this Monday, the 8th of August from Midday. General public on-sale is 9am Sunday August the 14th.

Click this link from Monday to access the pre-sale offer http://www.ticketdirect.com.au/choose_seats.asp?ev=2401